Hanover council proposes projects for ARP funds

BY BOB DEMAREE

Hanover Town Council endorsed a proposal for allocating the town's $647,733 in American Rescue Plan funds at Tuesday's meeting.

According to Clerk treasurer Keith Mefford, $200,000 will be allocated to the town's sewer and water departments for service upgrades, $100,000 will be earmarked for water tower resurfacing along with $260,000 set aside in the town's water fund with bids for that project anticipated to be about $350,000.

Another $200,000 will be dedicated toward a new trash truck and the purchase of big trash cans for the town to consider beginning its own trash collection service. Mefford said the town currently pays $13,000 per month for trash pick up by Rumpke each Friday and recycling on Mondays.

A total of $96,233 is earmarked for park upgrades and $50,000 for additional police vehicles and necessary upgrades.

Another $22,000 will be allocated for upgrades to the Community Building to include painting the senior area inside, building a storage closet, building additional office space, upgrading two back doors and upgrading locks to key fobs.

Other allocations include $20,000 toward the town's five-year comprehensive master plan, $20,000 to the Hanover Volunteer Fire Company, $15,500 for purchase of plate reader cameras for the police, $10,000 for electric updates and security cameras at Rainbow Park and $5,000 to the Hanover Township Trustee.

The council also approved allocating $9,000 to purchase smart boards — large interactive screens that can be used by the council during meetings for better presentation of information. Mefford said the smart boards will provide the ability to display maps and make notes while presentations are made.

The council approved the first reading of the ordinance Tuesday. A public hearing is scheduled for the Oct. 18 council meeting when the council will vote on a second reading of the ARP ordinance.

In other business, the council:

• Held a public hearing on the town's 2023 budget of $1,405,509. The budget is slated to be adopted at the Oct. 18 town council meeting.

• Approved the third reading of updated water rates and charges in which the state legislature required state municipalities eliminate to utility receipts tax, lowering most of the town's rates. Town attorney Devon Sharpe said new rates will take effect Nov. 1.

• Approved donation of 0.41 acres of property by Mark and Cynthia Rogers adjacent to the north parking lot of Hanover Community Park in exchange for a privacy fence and gate to block the parking lot from their property, plus a small water line. The land will be graveled to provide more parking space at the park.

• Josh Ford of the beautification committee requested $4,000 for making improvements to refresh the two Hanover entrance signs coming into the town that he said have been

County's jail project still slightly ahead of schedule

BY BOB DEMAREE

Jefferson County Commissioners received an update on construction of the new Jefferson County Sheriff's Office and Criminal Justice Center noted that the project is slightly ahead of schedule.

"Things are proceeding nicely," said Commissioner Bobby Little. He said the building is now "dry" meaning it is sufficiently completed to keep out wind, rain and weather so that construction is no longer impacted by the elements. The new 300-bend, $45 million jail is due to be completed in 2023.

Mark Shireman, project-in-charge manager for Shireman Construction, echoed Little's comments. "We've got a great team out on the site" doing the work and "we've got a great team around this table. We're proud to be here, and there's a great team on the Sheriff's staff" that's supporting the work being done.

Shireman asked for several change orders to be approved for the jail — $57,067 to Hussong Mechanical, $55,565 to Link Electrical and $113,300 to EH Construction — that he said all fall within budget for the project. "The contingency fund is in great shape," said Shireman. "You're in great shape budget-wise. Things are going well."

On a sad note, the Commissioners and Shireman reported the death Monday of Jack Krouse, the owner's representative for the jail project. Commissioners President Ron Lee said Krouse, president of Construction Control Inc. of Fort Wayne, had been supportive of the project even before construction began by offering free advice.

The Commissioners noted Krouse's wisdom had been an asset to the jail construction.

"He saved us so much money," said Little.

"He saved us a lot of headaches," Lee added.

Shireman said John Painter, vice president of field operations for Construction Control Inc., now will take over duties as the owner's representation for the project.

Postal Service facilities will be closed for retail transactions on Monday in observance of the Columbus Day holiday and there will be no residential or business delivery.

All Indiana license branches will be closed Saturday through Monday for the Columbus Day holiday. Branches will resume regularly scheduled business hours on Tuesday.

Madison campground revenue up 15%

BY BOB DEMAREE

Revenue at the City of Madison's campground is up 15% over last year through September, Parks Director Matt Woolard told members of the Parks Board Monday.

"We're very excited how that's going," Woolard said of the RV park overlooking the Ohio River on Vaughn Drive. "Last year we set an all-time high and this year we have already exceeded those numbers." Woolard credited campground manager Doug Buckler for the work he's done to improve the campground.

Woolard noted there have been additional expenses at the campground "because we're reinvesting" in the facility and efforts are ongoing to determine how to best continue to reinvest in the campground.

The campground is typically well occupied on weekends, and Buckler thinks revenue growth could depend on increasing weekday occupancy, which he proposed might be achieved by lower weekday rates. "We don't get that many people in Monday through Thursday", so what are we going to do to pick up people?"

Buckler said the campground at Clifty Falls State Park has lower rates and a higher volume of weekday campers and the Madison campground rates need to be comparable. "We need be in a range of more what they are, so we can start pulling more people into the city campground," he said.

Buckler said the Madison Riverfront Development Committee has expressed interest in extending the riverwalk along the Ohio River to the east end of the campground so walkers do not have to walk on the city street through that area. He said he was in favor of that proposal.

"That's one of the main things that's really a big concern to me" because of vehicles that go through there. "If you're walking on the edge of the street at dusk, there's a good chance of somebody getting run over ... I think overall it would be a safety issue for everybody."

In other business:

• A groundbreaking on improvements to Oak Hill Park is slated for 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday. Woolard said the improvements will include new playground equipment, new sidewalks, parking to provide better accessibility to the park, benches, trash cans, fencing around the perimeter of the park, a dog park area, new basketball goals and a resurfaced basketball court, cornhole boards, a new shelter house, and trees aligned to the houses on the north side. Completion is anticipated in the spring of next year.

Woolard said a $50,000 grant

TODAY IN HISTORY

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHT IN HISTORY:

On Oct. 8, 1871, the Great Chicago Fire erupted; fires also broke out in Peshtigo, Wisconsin, and in several communities in Michigan.

ON THIS DATE:

In 1914, the World War I song "Keep the Home Fires Burning," by Ivor Novello and Lena Guilbert Ford, was first published in London under the title "'Till the Boys Come Home."

In 1945, President Harry S. Truman told a press conference in Tiptonville, Tennessee, that the secret scientific knowledge behind the atomic bomb would be shared only with Britain and Canada.

In 1956, Don Larsen pitched the only perfect game in a World Series to date as the New York Yankees beat the Brooklyn Dodgers in Game 5, 2-0.

In 1982, all labor organizations in Poland, including Solidarity, were banned.

In 1985, the hijackers of the Italian cruise ship Achille Lauro (ah-KEE'-leh LOW'-roh) killed American passenger Leon Klinghoffer, who was in a wheelchair, and threw his body overboard.

In 1997, scientists reported the Mars Pathfinder had yielded what could be the strongest evidence yet that Mars might once have been hospitable to life.

In 1998, the House triggered an open-ended impeachment inquiry against President Bill Clinton in a momentous 258-176 vote; 31 Democrats joined majority Republicans in opening the way for nationally televised impeachment hearings.

In 2002, a federal judge approved President George W. Bush's request to reopen West Coast ports, ending a 10-day labor lockout that was costing the U.S. economy an estimated $1 to $2 billion a day.

In 2005, a magnitude 7.6 earthquake flattened villages on the Pakistan-India border, killing an estimated 86,000 people.

In 2010, British aid worker Linda Norgrove, who'd been taken captive in Afghanistan, was killed during a U.S. special forces rescue attempt, apparently by a U.S. grenade.

In 2016, Donald Trump vowed on Twitter to continue his campaign; many Republicans were calling on Trump to abandon his presidential bid in the wake of the release of a 2005 video in which he made lewd remarks about women and appeared to condone sexual assault.

In 2020, authorities in Michigan said six men had been charged with conspiring to kidnap Democratic Gov. Gretchen Whitmer in reaction to what they viewed as her "uncontrolled power." (Two of the six pleaded guilty, two others were acquitted and the remaining two were convicted at a retrial in August 2022.) Democrat Joe Biden said President Donald Trump's tweet earlier in the year to "LIBERATE MICHIGAN" may have encouraged the alleged kidnapping plot.

Ten years ago: President Barack Obama designated the Keene, California, home of Cesar Chavez, the late founder of the United Farmworkers Union, as a national monument.

Five years ago: Harvey Weinstein was fired from The Weinstein Company amid allegations that he was responsible for decades of sexual harassment against female actors and employees. Vice President Mike Pence left the 49ers-Colts game in Indianapolis after about a dozen San Francisco players took a knee during the national anthem; Pence tweeted that he wouldn't "dignify any event that disrespects our soldiers, our Flag or our National Anthem."

One year ago: The White House said President Joe Biden would not block the handover of documents sought by a House panel investigating the Jan. 6 insurrection at the U.S. Capitol. Federal prosecutors announced that they would not file charges against a white police officer who shot a Black man, Jacob Blake, in Wisconsin in August 2020. A federal appeals court allowed the nation's toughest abortion law to go back into effect in Texas; the order came just one day after a lower court sided with the Biden administration and suspended the law. Journalists Maria Ressa of the Philippines and Dmitry Muratov of Russia won the 2021 Nobel Peace Prize for their fight for freedom of expression in countries where reporters faced persistent attacks, harassment and even murder.

Today's Birthdays: Entertainment reporter Rona Barrett is 86. Actor Paul Hogan is 83. R&B singer Fred Cash (The Impressions) is 82. Civil rights activist Rev. Jesse Jackson is 81. Clerk-treasurer Keith Mefford said he will check to see if funds are available. "It's more than reasonable because you guys have talked about it for quite some time" to upgrade those signs.

• Mefford said replacement of two light poles on Field 3 at Hanover Community Park will cost $2,941, slightly higher than the $2,100 cost for the previous poles being considered. He said the more expensive poles are a more study pole better capable of safely supporting the weight of the lights or if additional lights need to be added. The town council tentatively approved up to $7,000 to cover the cost of poles with the installation.

• Trick or Treat in Hanover is scheduled for from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Halloween on Monday, Oct. 31.

He said the restrooms near the basketball court have been granted Historic District Board of Review approval to be torn down and will not be replaced because there are new bathrooms at Crystal Beach. Woolard said the elevator for the pool house is due to be finished by November, but said he will update the board when he knows for sure.

• Woolard said year-to-date revenue for Sunrise Golf Course is approximately $380,000. "We still have a few months to go so we are encouraged by that number," he said, noting the course is "trending in the right way" with paid green fees up 44%, paid cart rentals up 46% and overall total rounds up 10%.

The park is slated to receive new playground equipment, basketball goals and court resurfacing, shelter house, sidewalks, additional parking to provide better accessibility, benches, trash cans, perimeter fencing, a dog park area, cornhole boards and landscaping in a project estimated to cost $400,000 paid for with city funds and donations.

7 Financial Tips to Help you Enjoy Life and Reduce Stress

Layin' it on the line

By Stephen Dybwad
Retirement Planning/
Wealth Management

Use these tips to reduce stress

1. Get serious about your retirement: If your employer matches your 401(k) contributions, you need to take advantage and max out your contribution. Your employer's share is "house money," which means using their contribution as part of your 401(k) plan as an employee benefit. Many 401(k) plans allow for conversion to a guaranteed retirement income which can be used as a lifetime benefit. Ask your benefits manager to see if it is included in your plan. It would help if you also planned at what age you would like to retire. If you have had a loss in investment returns in your 401(k), ask yourself how you can gain that back. Your asset allocation in your 401(k) can be changed as you get closer to retirement age. Most plans allow you to move the money as a rollover to a self-directed IRA, which provides the option of using an annuity with an "Income Rider" attached to provide desired guarantees. If you have an IRA and are not contributing annually, start this year; contributions made before April can be deducted from the previous year's income.

2. If you don't have a will, see an attorney and make one. If you have a current will make sure it is up to date.

3. Name an executor for your estate. Use caution in the selection, and make sure you have asked the executor for permission to use them. Based on the valuation of your estate and your state of residence, the use of a trust can assist the executor in their responsibilities. Ask your attorney for ideas and help. Never buy a trust from anyone other than an attorney licensed to practice law. Often life insurance is used to provide funds for any taxes or debts that may be due at your death, have a professional insurance review the policies, and make sure the ownership and beneficiary decisions are up to date.

4. Create an emergency fund for situations that come up, such as a hole in your roof or an unplanned car repair. Only 28% of people have an emergency fund, according to a 2022 Bankrate.com survey.

5. Take a close look at your investments and review them for changes. Remember, as we get older, we have less time to make up losses in our investments.

6. Start paying down debt. Debt can be a drag on your retirement; once the debt is retired, stress becomes less, and your options for life increase.

7. Budgeting and following a monthly plan can help. There are numerous studies about budgeting; one thing is for sure, people who follow a budget have less stress. Make a budget and stick to it.

Life should be enjoyed. Use these simple 7 financial tips as the first step to regaining financial freedom and reducing stress.

Shawe, Switzerland meet in Class A finals

BY THE COURIER STAFF

No. 19 Shawe outlasted No. 12 Southwestern in a wild overtime contest while fifth-ranked Switzerland County rolled to its 18th win in 18 contests in the Class A boys soccer sectional semifinals at Jac-Cen-Del on Wednesday.

Shawe scored a goal with a minute left in regulation to force overtime and again with a minute left in the second overtime to pull out a 3-2 win over rival Southwestern in the first game.

The two teams had split their first two meetings this season and Shawe took an early lead when Oswaldo Reyes-Miranda converted a terrific cross from Jacob Hertz to go ahead 1-0 by halftime.

But Southwestern roared back, getting two goals by Garrett Johnson and Mizael Hernandez-Perez over a span of five minutes to take a 2-1 lead.

The Rebels held that advantage until the final minute of the game when Davis Grote found the back of the net to tie the match for Shawe 2-2 and force overtime. Grote then struck again with a minute left in the second overtime to give the Hilltoppers the win.

Switzerland County didn't have nearly as much trouble beating South Ripley 4-0 in the second semifinal.

The Pacers scored just 11 seconds into the match and added two more goals to take a 3-0 lead into halftime. Switzerland added a fourth goal in the second half and the defense posted its 12th shutout of the year to advance to the title game.

Cooper Todd had two goals and an assist to lead Switzerland while Aiden Griffith had two goals and Levi Curlin had one assist.

Switzerland County (18-0) and Shawe (13-3-2) will meet in the championship match at Jac-Cen-Del at 6 p.m. today. Southwestern ends its season with an 11-5-2 record.

Shawe beats South Ripley to win share of ORVC title

BY THE COURIER STAFF

Shawe Memorial clinched its first-ever Ohio River Valley Conference championship in volleyball with a three-set sweep of South Ripley at home on Wednesday.

The Hilltoppers, whose only conference loss this season came while star Emmaline Leatherman was sidelined with an injury, gutted out a 29-27 first-set victory then won the next two sets 25-21 and 25-16 to win the match and share the conference crown with South Ripley.

"The girls played with a lot of energy and fought hard all night with the title being within their reach," Shawe assistant coach Dennis Kilgore said.

Autumn Lathrem was a perfect 14-for-14 serving with four aces and also had seven kills for the Hilltoppers. Leatherman was 10-for-11 serving with an ace, 10 kills and four digs, Payton Lock was 12-for-13 serving with an ace and five digs, Lauren Grote was 12-for-14 serving with two aces and six digs, Allison Knoebel was 10-for-12 serving with an ace, four kills, nine digs and 11 assists, Harlee Hill was 11-for-14 serving with an ace, eight kills, six digs and 13 assists, and Ava Turner had 11 kills.

REBELS SWEEP HENRYVILLE

Southwestern picked up a three-set win over Henryville on Thursday, 25-10, 25-16, 25-16.

"We played a very solid game tonight. Our defense and serve receive was very good with our team only committing two passing errors all match," Southwestern coach Chris Johnson said.

"Our offense had an excellent effort led by our left side hitters, Emma Long and Raygan Crawford. We served the ball well, too, with 13 aces compared to five errors."

Southwestern, now 13-15 on the season, competes in the Edinburgh Invitational today to wrap up the regular season. The Rebels then face Milan in the opening round of the Class 2A Sectional at Hauser on Thursday.

Madison falls to Lawrenceburg in in penalty kick shootout

BY DAVID CAMPBELL

BATESVILLE — For the second time this season, Lawrenceburg rallied from a 3-1 deficit to deny Madison in boys soccer. But this time hurt considerably more for the Cubs than the last.

The Tigers scored two goals in the final 35 minutes then outshot Madison 4-2 in a penalty kick shootout to stun the Cubs 4-3 in the semifinals of the Class 2A Sectional at Batesville on Wednesday.

Just like in the earlier loss, Madison dominated the first half but couldn't put the Tigers away in the second half. This time it also ended the Cubs' season.

"In the first half of both games, we played extremely well. And then I don't know what it is about this team but every game we seem to come out just a little flat to start the second half," Madison coach Kyle Bipes said.

"It's tough because this team was special and I thought we could make some things happen. But the last team I wanted to draw was Lawrenceburg because there's just something about them that we don't do well with. And it happened again tonight."

Madison seemed well on its way to the sectional championship game, scoring three goals in the first half and taking a 3-1 lead. However, Lawrenceburg began chipping away and tied the game with 17 minutes left in regulation.

Madison players (from left) Sonny Koren, Collin Hite, Ian Eiriksson and Adriano Martinez sit dejected as Lawrenceburg players sprint onto the field to celebrate the Tigers' 4-3 shootout win in the Class 3A sectional semifinals at Batesville on Wednesday.

The Cubs dominated possession and had plenty of chances to go back on top over the final 31 minutes of regulation and overtime but they couldn't get it done. That sent the game into the penalty kick shootout, a head-to-head duel that is as much luck as skill.

Madison got a bit of luck when Lawrenceburg's first attempt in the PKs clanged off the bar but it proved to be the Tigers' final miss. While Lawrenceburg proceeded to convert its next four attempts, Madison alternated hits with misses with Ian Eiriksson and Collin Hite each finding the net but it just wasn't enough.

Bipes shouldered the blame in the loss. The coach received a red card in Madison's regular-season finale and, due to IHSAA rules, was forced to watch the first two games of the sectional from the stands instead of being on the sidelines.

"When we beat Charlestown in PKs in my second year, I had an idea of where they were going to go and with me being the idiot that I am and not being able to coach tonight, I couldn't tell (keeper) Graham Klein what was going on," Bipes said. "I told the boys this is 100% on me. If I'm there, I believe we win that game. Nothing against (assistant coach) Edi (Tovar) or anything, but it's just different when you don't have your head coach there to rely on for advice. If I'm not an idiot two games ago, we win that game and I don't think there's any question about it."

Making the loss sting even more was the fact that Bipes announced afterward that it was his last as coach. With two young daughters, a growing business and his commitments with the Madison Regatta, Bipes just couldn't find the time to do everything that he loves.

Tears welled up in Bipes' eyes as he talked about his career and the team that he has coached.

"I've been thinking about it for a long time. I love these boys. I love this school. And I didn't cry when my senior season was over, but it's just tough now," said Bipes, whose teams were 41-39-13 with two sectional championship and a regional runner-up during his tenure. "It's been a fun five years, but it's time. I've got too much stuff going on. I got a wife and two kids and I need to be a husband and dad for a little bit.

"If you would have told me when I took over, coming off a two-win season and losing 13 seniors, that I would have two sectional championships, multiple all-conference players and some really good records, I would have said you're an idiot," Bipes added. "But these boys bought into to what I was saying from the top down and it started with Carson Denton, Bergen Cornelius all the way down to Sonny (Koren) and Ian Eiriksson. It's not something that was easy. I will miss everything about it. But I got too much stuff going on and it's time."

Madison ends the season with a 10-4-4 record. Lawrenceburg, now 9-7, plays South Dearborn in the sectional championship today. Dearborn (11-5-2) defeated Greensburg 8-0 in the other semifinal.

Archer's goal in 63rd minute lifts No. 9 Pacers over No. 10 Twisters

BY DAVID CAMPBELL

MILAN — It wasn't that long ago that Oldenburg Academy stood as a roadblock to Switzerland County's playoff hopes in girls soccer, an immovable object standing in the way of the Pacers' sectional dreams and beyond. Not anymore.

The Pacers' defense shut down the Twisters and Halle Archer scored on a terrific sequence in the 63rd minute to lift the ninth-ranked Pacers to a 1-0 win over No. 10 Oldenburg in the semifinals of the Class A Girls Soccer Sectional at Milan on Thursday.

The win was Switzerland's second-straight over the Twisters in tournament play, erasing years of frustration and setback to their rivals from up north.

"I know for our program over the years, when they see the name Oldenburg, they kind of get a little nervous and freaked out," Switzerland coach Courtney Dayadharum said. "But the past couple years we're getting there. We've been able to get past them a bit.

"I was hoping it would be the other way around and they'd be nervous to play us this time," Dayadharum smiled.

The two rivals battled to a 1-1 tie three weeks ago — one of only two draws to blemish the Pacers' record this season — and everybody in attendance was expecting the same thing when the two teams took the field on Thursday.

For 60 minutes the Pacers and Twisters banged away at each other with only a few good looks at the goal on either side. But cracks began to form in Oldenburg's defense in the second half and Switzerland began to chip away.

Starting in the 55th minute, the Pacers (15-0-2) began to get some runs at the Twisters, with Archer twice working her way into the Oldenburg defense to get off shots.

The Twisters did a good job of thwarting Archer's first two efforts, but they couldn't stop the third.

Switzerland's winning goal was the epitome of team soccer. Kenzie Taylor got the ball just beyond midfield, made two moves before passing ahead to Emma Parsons, who was parked to the right of the goal, just inside the box. Parsons didn't hold the ball long, touching it to a streaking Archer who took possession mid-stride.

Switzerland County players swarm teammate Halle Archer in the 63rd minute after Archer's goal gave the Pacers a 1-0 win over Oldenburg Academy in their sectional semifinal battle of top 10 opponents Thursday at Milan.

The rest of the sequence belonged to Archer. With three Twister defenders flanking her and trying to stop her, Archer pushed the ball ahead, just past Oldenburg keeper Ashley Borgman, who had charged up in an attempt to stop the run.

As the ball went by Borgman, Archer hurdled the Twister goalie, beat two defenders to the ball and gave it one final touch into the net.

The goal set off a wild celebration by the Pacers, who then calmed down enough to play the final 17 minutes, holding Oldenburg to just two more shots to secure the win.

Oldenburg (11-4-1) was more efficient with its shots but the Twisters simply didn't get enough good looks thanks to the Switzerland defense. Switzerland ended up with a 15-6 advantage in shots, but just 5-4 on goal. Pacers' keeper Allena Weaver made four stops, as did Borgman.

A total of 27 fouls were called in the game— 17 of those on Oldenburg — and the Twisters had three corner kicks to two by the Pacers.

Switzerland now advances to the sectional finals today where it will take on Rising Sun while aiming for a second-straight sectional title.

The Shiners beat South Ripley in a shootout in the first semifinal. Game time is 2 p.m.

Switzerland beat Rising Sun twice this year but Dayadharum knows that her team can't take the Shiners lightly.

"We know what Rising Sun does to us. They play a very physical game, they pack the box so we're gonna have to be tough against them," Dayadharum said.

MADISON FALLS ON PENALTY KICKS

Madison and Franklin County battled to two extra penalty kicks before Franklin finally pulled out a 1-0 win in the semifinals of the Class 3A Girls Soccer Sectional at South Dearborn on Thursday.

The two teams battled for 94 scoreless minutes before the game went to the penalty kick shootout to decide the winner.

Both teams hit their first two shots, with Molly Armbrecht and Kyra Ayler each finding the back of the net for the Cubs, and Madison got a third goal by Iyana Phelps in the fifth attempt to stay alive. After each team missed on their sixth attempt, Franklin County finally scored and denied Madison to send the Wildcats into the Saturday's championship.

Madison ends the season with an 8-7-1 record. Franklin County, now 10-6, will face 14th-ranked Lawrenceburg in the championship match today.

Colts grind out 12-9 win over Broncos

BY ARNIE STAPLETON
AP PRO FOOTBALL WRITER

DENVER — Matt Ryan kept the faith through all the sacks, interceptions, fumbles and three-and-outs that made for a streaming snooze-fest Thursday night.

"It was just kind of a slog of a game," the Indianapolis quarterback said after Stephon Gilmore batted away Russell Wilson's pass to Courtland Sutton in the end zone on fourth-and-1 from the 5 to give the Colts a 12-9 overtime victory over the Denver Broncos.

The game featured seven field goals, a dozen punts, 25 third-down stops, four interceptions and six fumbles — none of which were recovered by the otherwise disruptive defenses.

"Our defense played lights out," said Ryan, who emerged victorious despite getting sacked six times, giving him 21 so far this season, throwing a pair of interceptions to Caden Sterns and fumbling for the 10th time this season.

"We need to play better for sure, but I'm proud of the guys," Ryan said. "Wins are what we need. We're right in the mix. ... I thought the two drives at the end showed a lot of guys.

"You just keep battling — and it helps when your defense is shutting them down, too."

Gilmore also intercepted Wilson's pass just before the 2-minute mark of the fourth quarter to set up Chase McLaughlin's tying field goal with five seconds left.

"That's the definition of a big-time player making big plays in the moment," Colts coach Frank Reich said about Gilmore. "Isn't it awesome you can have a game like that and still win?"

DNR stocks channel catfish statewide

The DNR is stocking channel catfish throughout Indiana. This fall, DNR will stock 147 locations with approximately 63,742 fish. All locations should be stocked by the end of October or early November.

The channel catfish range in size from 8-10 inches. Once stocked, the fish acclimate to their new environment quickly and don't take long to start biting. Anglers are encouraged to harvest the catfish, as they make great table fare.

In Jefferson County, Johnson Lake has been stocked with 300 8-inch fish while Krueger Lake received 485 8-inch cats.

The totals for neighboring counties include: Jennings — Crosley Lake (Crosley FWA), 720 8-inch; Eco Lake 455 8-inch; Goose Pond (Crosley FWA), 155 8-inch; Mallard Pond (Crosley FWA), 145 8-inch; and Teal Pond (Crosley FWA), 110 8-inch. Scott — Family Fishing Hole, 50 10-inch; Lake Iola, 515 8-inch; Manaugh Pond, 200 8-inch; Wilcox Lake, 215 8-inch. Ripley — Bischoff Reservoir (Batesville), 2899 8-inch; Mollenkramer Reservoir (Batesville), 526 8-inch.

Anglers interested in harvesting channel catfish need to follow bag and size restrictions. In most lakes and reservoirs, the statewide regulation is 10 channel catfish per day in lakes, with no more than one being longer than 28 inches; however, there are a few lakes that have a different bag limit. They are listed at eregulations.com/indiana/fishing/basic-fishing-information under Special Regulations Waters.

Channel Catfish stocking locations, numbers, and sizes are listed at: wildlife.IN.gov/fishing/indiana-fish-stocking. To view fishing regulations, see the fishing guide at: on.IN.gov/fishingguide.

Sibling has extreme wedding attendant anxiety

Dear Amy: My sibling has asked me to be a part of their wedding party.

I was shocked in a positive way.

I've never been asked to be part of a wedding party before. I love and respect my sibling immensely, even though we are not super close.

AMY DICKINSON ASK AMY

While I want to support them on their special day, I am getting anxious about standing up in front of people, and the wedding isn't even until later next year.

Any presentations I had to give during school up until my master's degree resulted in my face/body turning so red that I have been asked if I have a severe sunburn.

I also have hyperhidrosis, where I can easily sweat through an entire outfit in a matter of minutes and be left with drenched clothing that people can see.

How do I break the news to my sibling that I want to do it, but I just don't think I can handle it?

My anxiety has led to me and my fiancé planning a private wedding with just our young kids and parents attending.

My sibling does not even know this yet (the wedding date hasn't been set), so should I break that news at the same time?

How can I say this so no feelings are hurt?

— Too Shy

Dear Too Shy: It was kind of your sibling to include you in their wedding party.

I assume that your sibling might anticipate that this would be challenging for you. So respond (sooner rather than later) — "I am really honored that you asked me to stand up with you! But I'm really worried about doing that, so I hope it's OK if I cheer you on from the sidelines. I think that's the most I can do."

Ask if there are other ways you can be helpful during the planning process.

In terms of your own wedding, you should not combine these conversations. You have every right to design your own wedding in whatever way you choose, but you should do your best to separate the events.

Man witnesses assault, wonders what to do

Dear Amy: I am a 30-year-old gay man who doesn't particularly like children.

While I was shopping at the grocery store, I saw a man smack his little baby across the face.

The child began crying and sucking its thumb.

I was shocked and disgusted.

Is there anything a person can do in these circumstances?

I feel guilty for not advocating for an infant who appeared to be less than two years old.

— Not a Parent

AMY DICKINSON ASK AMY

Dear Not a Parent: Thank you for recognizing that even though you "don't like them," young children are helpless human beings who should not be assaulted, by a parent or by anyone else.

Yes, you should have attempted to advocate for this child. Ways to do this would be to say, "Whoa whoa — wait a minute. Is everything OK here?" (You don't want to risk an escalation by responding too aggressively.)

And then you should have also contacted store security and/or called 911. This incident might have been caught on the store's security cameras.

Slapping a baby across the face is assault and abuse. Yes, it is shocking and disgusting, and this person (who might not have been the baby's parent — or even related to the baby) should be stopped, and this baby protected.

ASTROLOGY

ARIES (March 21-April 19) — Someone you meet could surprise you by signaling amorous intentions. Don't mistake infatuation for love or let flattery go to your head. Avoid a misunderstanding with your partner by being more attentive.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) — Make peace with an opponent or strengthen the bonds of affection with loved ones. You are happiest with those who offer unconditional support. Set helpful and protective boundaries with those who continually stir up drama.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — Your warmth and friendliness may be so refreshing that you gain a fan club. Even if someone misunderstands your intentions, you can still work things out because your real friends will support you in the end.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Keep your feet planted firmly on the ground even when your head is in the clouds. It may be difficult to be sociable and relax because you may be preoccupied by practical affairs. Relatives provide a good sounding board.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Friendly persuasion might be the best tool in your bag of tricks. You may be able to get the best outcome if you handle a situation gently and sensitively. People are more likely to help someone who is working to help themselves.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Minor problems that could impact your budget might be caused by carelessness or extravagance. Avoid a dispute with a loved one by being straightforward and honest. Stress can be alleviated with the help of a loved one.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) — You may suffer the pangs of a serious infatuation. Time will tell if the attraction is lasting or just a spark that quickly fades. Hold off on making promises because you may not be on the same page as someone else.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) — You may see clearly just what needs to be said or done to cure a current problem. For a few hours, you might allow someone's emotional state to override your common sense. A family friend can be a source of inspiration.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) — If you're persuaded to uncritically go along with public opinion, you may end up agreeing to something that is not in your best interests. A partner or loved one could want to invite friends to your home.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Mysteries can be explored, and facts can be brought to light. You may prefer to contemplate an issue thoroughly before you make a decision. Maintain an intelligent and objective attitude and use your best judgment.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — You are probably on the same wavelength as your closest friends. Attending community events or volunteering in community efforts might give you a chance to spend time with people and do something constructive, too.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) — Minor flaws in a relationship could become a point of contention. You may be tempted to try something that fulfills your fantasies but end up on a wild goose chase. Temporary challenges and struggles should soon end.

ASTROLOGY

ARIES (Mar 21-Apr. 19) — Your choices are clearer when it is a matter of black and white. However, you may feel stuck at a standstill if the gray areas require attention. Take some extra time to make sure that changes to your budget are in order.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20) — Ignore trivial issues when more pressing situations demand attention. Your original ideas can receive adequate recognition. Don't put too much stock in flattering comments as romantic sparks might quickly fade.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) — You need to complete all the necessary steps to achieve the right outcome.. Your enthusiastic friends may spur you to accomplishment; try not to lose interest or let them down. Steer clear of disputes and disagreements.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) — Someone might share their wealth and expertise but will probably expect something in return. If you have been doing well for yourself, it may be time to reassess your finances and focus on upleveling your career.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) — Prioritize your strategies. You can be confident about achieving success if you are orderly and take things step by step. You might learn more by reviewing your past mistakes than by trying to predict the future.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — If it does not feel right, listen to your gut. A romantic relationship may go off the rails if you are insensitive to someone's hidden needs. Hold off on making a final decision about an investment or purchase for a few days.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22.) — Your charisma is running high and you may attract adoring fans. However, occasionally even true love misses the mark. The target of your affection may send mixed messages about their long-term intentions.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) — You are not obligated to follow someone else's timetable. Scrutinize an issue carefully and dig a little deeper before taking any action. Do not feel left out if a loved one gets somewhat more attention than you do.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22- Dec. 21) — Notice if you are spending too much of your free time on activities that disrupt the harmony within your home. Be considerate of others by paying attention to their preferences and needs and setting things up accordingly.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Some mistakes cannot be undone, but every mistake can be learned from so that you do not repeat it. You can learn from experience and avoid misunderstandings. Save your money and listen to friends.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Take pride in the fact that someone relies on your reliability. Focus on spending time with friends and constructive activities. Keep your money in your pocket since you may not be satisfied with a purchase.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) — A hurried decision could be a poor decision. You may be attracted to the latest trends and cool objects that do not really fit into your décor or lifestyle. Don't give into any pressure to agree if you do not agree.
